

CD selection at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. All customers can get three free CD's per visit per customer.

A Customer searches through records at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. Left Of The Dial Records is open Tuesday to Sunday from eleven to six pm.

Shop owner Bill Michelle's unattended desk during peak hours in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. Bill owns and runs Left Of The Dial Records, offering thousands of vinyl records, cd's, turntables, and more to the local community.

The dollar vinyl selection sold at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. Shop owner Bill sells less sought-after records at lower prices due to the stores option for customers to trade and sell their used records.

Shop goer listens to music at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. The album playing is Sam Cooke - Live At The Harlem Square. All records in the shop can be played on turntables in store before purchasing.

Used vinyl record covers at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. Store owner Bill describes his collection as, “a reflection of what I have come across and found, but also a function of the music that people trade in.”

A CD left out at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, Oct 22, 2024. Customers looking for specific CD's or vinyls can email recordsleftofthedial@gmail.com to find their item in store or be connected to another local supplier.

Shop owner Bill Michelle inspects a potential record for purchase at Left Of The Dial Records in Orange, Calif. on Tuesday, October 23, 2024. Bill has owned and ran the shop since June 2017.

